HAMILTON CO. SR. HIGH ANNOUNCEMENTS
March 23, 2015

Congratulations to the Fox Fire Trap team for their performance Saturday in the spring season opener for the Southern Illinois Youth Sport Shooting Association. Seventeen schools from southern Illinois and western Kentucky competed in this event, totaling 48 squads and 214 shooters. Fox Fire made a clean sweep of all high school and Junior High squad awards, along with six of the 12 individual top gun awards. Fox Fire varsity squad of Sean-Paul Trotter, Ryan Brockett, David Thomas, Tyler Wellen and Trent Rubenacker took first place with a score of 469 of 500 targets. The Junior Varsity squad consisting of Tristan McPeak, Logan Hunt, Landon Webb, Jake Whipple and Gregor Garrett also finished first in the Junior Varsity division with a score of 453 of 500 targets. Individual honors were awarded as followed: Class A First place to Trent Rubenacker with a score of 97 of 100 targets. Class B first place Ryan Brockett with a score of 95 of 100 targets. Class B second place Tristan McPeak with a score of 95 of 100 targets. Class C second place Tyler Wellen with a score of 92 of 100 targets and Class D second place Robert Pleasant with a score of 94 of 100 targets. Congratulations to all Fox Fire shooters on a job well done.
