

John and Flossie Lee Memorial Scholarship

John and Flossie Lee were life-time residents of Hamilton County. John Lee was a farmer. He and Flossie Lee raised 12 children on a small farm in Flanagan Township in Hamilton County. All 12 children attended schools in Hamilton County. John Lee was the first bus driver for McLeansboro Township High School. He drove the bus for the high school over 20 years.

The members of the John and Flossie Lee family would like to present a scholarship to a boy or girl that is planning to further his/her education in the field of agriculture at a college or university. To apply for this scholarship a student should submit an 500 word essay expressing the following:

1. What are your future plans in the agriculture field?
2. What activities have you participated in that relate to agriculture?
3. Attach a recent photo.
4. Attach a resume.

The scholarship will have a one-time minimum value of $500.00.
