November 12, 2012

Veterans Day, which is observed on November 11, is a time to thank and honor all those who served honorably in the military – in wartime or peacetime and to acknowledge their contributions to our national security, to underscore the fact that all those who served have sacrificed and done their duty. We honor those past and present who have sacrificed so we may enjoy the freedoms we enjoy in our country. Take time today to thank a Veteran for their service.

The book fair is upon us! Starting tomorrow and running through next Wednesday, the JH Drama Club along with the HS Book Club will be sponsoring our annual Book Fair. The fair will be held in the High School Library and will be open every day until 3:30. On Thursday and Friday, it will also be open during Parent/Teacher Conferences. So, come on up and see us!

There will be a Hat Day for KARE in the Junior High on Nov. 15. Bring $1.00, wear your hat, and brighten Christmas for someone.

The Lady Foxes and Foxes will have their 2nd Annual Meet the Foxes on Friday, November 16. There will be a meal starting at 5:30 with scrimmages beginning at 7:00.

Reminder that Parent/Teacher Conferences are Thursday, November 15 and Friday, November 16. If parents want to schedule conferences they need to return the form that was sent home in report cards, or call the school and talk to Mrs. Link. If any student has brought a form back and not turned it in, please bring it to the office.

Progress Reports will go home Wednesday. Please have grades updated in Lumen by noon (12:00) on Tuesday.
